

KZF Design Announces new Director of Healthcare Studio

We would like to introduce Alan Sullivan, AIA, ACHA as Director of our Healthcare Studio. Alan's expertise strengthens KZF's deep background in healthcare design which spans four decades.

Alan brings more than 30 years of healthcare planning and design experience with both public and private hospitals, wellness centers, imaging centers, physicians' offices, medical office buildings and facilities for patient care from pediatric to geriatric.

Along with Alan comes the expertise of the Sullivan Healthcare Collaborative (SHC), which offers a wide breadth of resources with a collaborative network of healthcare experts. KZF and SHC offer a combined total of 80 years of healthcare history from which springs a cutting-edge, forward-thinking philosophy of design.
